Link will be accessible 1 February 2023, 12 o'clock noon.

Please make sure to use Firefox or Google Chrome.

Once you have registered and created an account to start an application via Slideroom, you may return to your application and make further edits up until the final deadline. Please make sure to save your edits each time you log on and do not submit until you are 100% sure that you have properly uploaded the required components outlined below. Once you click submit, you may no longer edit your application.

The following four components are required to successfully complete your application to our 1-year advanced degree / further education programme for Art in Public Space.

- A) Motivational statement
- B) Documentation of previous education
- C) Work documentation
- B) Payment of application fee

A) Motivational statement - max. 2200 characters.

Please state your motivation for applying to the Anne Marie Carl-Nielsen Programme for Art in Public Space. The motivational letter is your chance to describe why you are applying. Please outline why you are interested in the programme and how you imagine the study programme to be relevant of your work and past experience. (Max. 2200 characters).

B) Previous education

To be admitted to the Anne Marie Carl-Nielsen Programme for Art in Public Space applicants – whether students, guest students or professional artists – must have completed a three-year bachelor's degree in the visual arts or equivalent from another visual arts institution of study comprising subjects, modules or courses of which at least 80 credits or ECTS relate and are relevant to the programme. Please list your previous educations and add graduation year. Documentation required. Exemption from this requirement may be granted in special cases. If so, please explain why you should be granted exemption and upload documentation.

C) Documentation of works:

All applicants may upload a total of 15 photographs documenting a maximum of 5 works and a minimum of 3 works.

Of these, a maximum of 3 video and/or sound works may be submitted. Each video and/or sound work may have a maximum length of 1 minute. Video and/or sound works longer than 1 minute will not be considered.

All video and sound works must include a 5-second "label" (white text/black background) at the beginning of every video that includes the applicant's name, the work title and indication of whether the video includes sound. If the video or sound file is an excerpt from a longer work, the original length of the work must also be noted.

Video documentation of performances is considered a video work.

Video documentation of exhibitions, installations, paintings, artistic processes etc. will not be considered. Likewise, documentation of several works in the same video, photo or PDF will not be considered.

All works must be labelled with medium, such as installation, painting, photograph, sculpture, drawing, print, video, performance etc., title (if the work is untitled this must be noted), year, materials and dimensions in cm for each work.

Please follow Slideroom's guidelines for selection of file types.

PDF files will not be considered.
